

Look Closer: Scavenger Hunt

In his images, John Johnson often incorporated elements that represented the personalities, interests, and histories of the people he photographed. Take another look at the images in this exhibit. Can you find the details shown below?

ANSWERS: A) Photograph with girl in "Uncovering History" section. B) Dog underneath baby in high chair in "Photography Then and Now," 6th photo in scrolling gallery under heading "Bringing Photographs to Life through Color." C) Little girl at right of the Thomas Family in "The Thomas Family and Frances Hill." D) Instrument in "Introduction." E) Baseball glove in "Life in Lincoln," 3rd photo in gallery. F) Boy sitting between two women in "Life in Lincoln," 5th photo in scrolling gallery under Hannah Rosier story. G) Woman reading book in "The New Negro Movement," bottom of section. H) Vase next to woman in white in "Photography Then and Now," 2nd photo in scrolling gallery under heading "Bringing Photographs to Life through Color." I) Two young men next to Everett pendant in "Together in Black and White," 2nd photo in gallery.

This scavenger hunt is from the online exhibit Black and White in Black and White: Images of Dignity, Hope, and Diversity in America. The exhibit is curated by Douglas Keister and based upon the physical exhibition touring through Exhibit Envoy, a nonprofit.